The Prayer Quilters, along with some of their crafty friends, have been busy constructing table runners, placemats, coasters, pot holders, pillows, wine totes, wall hangings, Christmas stockings and ornaments, and a few other items to add beauty to your home. The goal of this crafting is to raise money for the Pack-A-Sack ministry, a group that provides weekend food to food insecure school children.

Starting October 28 and up to December 9, items will be available for sale in the church breezeway between services. Raffle tickets will also be for sale for a Christmas tree wall hanging. So come check out the crafts and donate to a worthy cause... Pack-A-Sack!

WHY WE ASK... part 2

from the Endowment Fund Board

We recognize that some might ask why a church with a healthy endowment needs to raise money at all. Good Shepherd's Endowment, while less than 1/3 the size of the wealthiest diocesan church's, helps to assist in funding a first-rate staff, strengthening our programs (especially community outreach), acquiring properties, keeping our facilities updated and safe, and paying the electric bill.

However, the income from our endowment does not come close to funding our current needs or our future dreams. And so we raise money to grow our endowment. We raise money so that we can continue to be Good Shepherd, a vital church with an admirable mission: to live in a world where all creation thrives in God's love and become who God created us to be. There is no higher calling, especially at this moment in time.

Our hope is that you agree and will take action now, committing to our well-being by leaving a bequest to The Church of the Good Shepherd Endowment Fund. You may speak to either Pastor Becky or an Endowment Fund Trustee about ways to make such a legacy gift: (Carolynn Hughes, Shirl Ahrens, Phyllis Sipos, Bob Bellavance.)
