FARM WORKER CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Every year Farm Worker Self-Help and Resurrection House Mission in Dade City gives Christmas gifts to over 200 farm worker families. Using lists the families have provided, they fill bags with gifts and the families drive by Christmas Eve, get them, and take them home.

Good Shepherd has contributed to this for over 30 years. You may purchase gifts and bring them to bins at the church and in Kirk Hall starting November 20th and ending December 14th. You may also make a check out to COGS noted "Farm Worker Fund" and we will shop for you.

Gift Suggestions:

Especially needed: Gifts for 11-15 year old boys and girls

Balls for any age or sport

Board games, card games, etc.

New children's books in English

Items for infants

Underwear and socks for any age

Self-care items

Work gloves and long-sleeved work shirts

(Men no XXL, Women M & L)

NO WEAPONS OF ANY KIND

Thank you for your generosity and show of appreciation.

Attention: Elementary Age Kids!

We are pairing up with Episcopal Church of the Ascension and some other local Episcopal churches for a really fun weekly EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) Youth Group for kids in elementary school! Please email Anne Punch: alterpiece@gmail.com with your kids names and ages so she can send more information.

Quilt Raffle Benefitting the Diocesan Hurricane Relief Fund

COGS crafters are selling raffle tickets for the gorgeous "Four Star General" quilt through the December 4 raffle date. Proceeds from the raffle will benefit the diocesan hurricane relief fund. The final 2022 Christmas craft sale will take place on December 4. Something for everyone for yourself or gifts.
