Weekly News - Sep 04, 2022

Come as you are. All are welcome. No exceptions!

Looking For New Members

The Bells of Hope (COGS Handbell Choir) has a few openings for ringers and are looking for persons who are interested in sharing their musical gifts with the congregation through this beautiful ministry. The ability to read music is not required but is helpful. Rehearsals are held on Tuesday evenings at 5:30 in the Sanctuary with ringing at the 10:00 am service about once a month.

Please contact Pat Cates (cpatcates@gmail.com) for more information.

Rector's Discretionary Fund collections are this Sunday, September 4.

Heartfelt thanks from Clothes to Kids for the contributions collected by Church of the Good Shepherd. We collected 941 pairs of underwear, 16 pairs of socks and monetary donations of $860. This translates to helping 188 kids with their school wardrobes and more because of the money collected.

Thank you

Walking The Mourners Path

We will be offering this 8-week program beginning the 2nd week of October. This is different than other programs in that it answers the question, "Where is God in my pain?" If you are interested, contact Deacon Cindy Roehl.
