Seder Dinner

Thursday, April 18 • 6:30 PM

Sign-up for your Seder Dinner reservation as there is limited space! For reservations, fill out the form on our website: cogsdunedin.com OR contact Diane Niford by email: dianeniford@yahoo.com. She will also be available after both services on Sunday.

This is also a Pot Luck... Diane will have a sign up list for the food we need!

Hope you can join us!

Prayer Vigil from 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 18, till sunrise on Friday, April 19th.

Come take turns with us as we "keep watch with Christ." A sign-up sheet for specific hours inside the chapel and out in the memorial garden is available after Sunday services in the Breezeway.

Prayers of consolation to the family and friends of Ann Marie Kuratnick who entered the church triumphant on Friday, March 29, 2019. The service for Ann will be at Church of the Good Shepherd on Friday, April 26, at 10:00 a.m. with reception to follow.

Cross Walk

For more than 10 years, a small but prayerful group has gathered for a Cross Walk starting at noon on Good Friday. Beginning where the Pinellas Trail crosses Albert St., we walk through downtown Dunedin, stopping at various places for the traditional 14 Stations of the Cross, and ending in the nave of Good Shepherd for final prayers and a time for meditation.

We take turns carrying a large wooden cross and the laypeople take the lead in reading the scripture verses, meditations, and prayers. Although we get plenty of quizzical looks, we also receive several expressions of thanks, and sometimes passersby will join in.

This is an ecumenical event suitable for all Christians. We welcome any and all to join us. There is no need to sign up, just show up shortly before noon on the Trail at Albert St.

People may park at the church. Service booklets will be available.

Good Friday • April 19 • Noon

There is also a Stations of the Cross Service in the church, beginning at noon, if you prefer to stay indoors

Live Stations of the Cross

Friday, April 19th at 6:30 PM

A Powerful and Moving Portrayal of Jesus' Last Hours

We gather in darkness and shadows, pain and repentance to witness the Passion of our Lord, presented with somber intensity. The service concludes with prayer before the Cross.

Easter Services

Saturday • April 20 • 6:30 PM

Easter Vigil, the first celebration of Easter which includes: kindling of new fire, The Service of Lessons, Renewal of Baptismal Vows, and the Eucharist. A reception in the Patio area follows the service.

Sunday • April 21 • 6:30 AM

Sunrise Service in our Patio area.

Sunday • April 21 • 8:00 AM

Joyful, Classic Service in the church.

Sunday • April 21 • 10:00 AM
