Our Little Thrift Shop will be closing its doors on January 30 after being at 506 Main Street for 45 years. The landlord is selling the building and has asked us to vacate the premises.

The Little Thrift Shop has been in existence since 1956 and has been the vital source of Good Shepherd's outreach to charitable organizations since its inception.

We will need help packing up whatever is left of our inventory for storage until we find a new location. Packing will take place from Monday, February 1, through Thursday, February 4, from 10am through 2pm each day. Moving day is Friday, February 5, with the help of the furniture thrift shop's resources.

If you can help with packing for a couple of hours, please contact Miriam at (646) 221-5590 or miriambenitez2003@yahoo.com with your availability.

Search Committee Update

Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Matthew 18:20

When the Search Committee began our discernment journey in September, we knew the Lord was guiding us in the search process. After months of discussing, interviewing, reflecting, praying and deciding our work is coming to a close. The Vestry "charged" us with recommending three finalists for their consideration for the next Rector of Good Shepherd. We are awaiting approval from the Bishop's office to give those names to our Sr. Warden, Phil Beauchamp.

We remain grateful for the prayers of the congregation, the Search Committee Prayer Group and for the dedication and faithful work of the Search Committee team: Beth Brinsko, Bruce Fahnestock, Carolyn Hughes, Sandy Kneen, Chris Schombs, Rhiannon Sharpe and Tammi Wrest.

Blessings,

Mary Ratliff and Andrea Zahn, Co-Chairs
