Last Things First

IT'S NOT MORBID, IT'S WISE!

People often think that talking about and preparing for death and dying is unlucky, morbid, or depressing. But this discussion is a wise way of caring for your life, your legacy, and your last wishes! It may surprise you to know that planning ahead is also a wonderful way of caring for your surviving friends and family because it's one less thing for them to worry about.

TODAY at 11:45 AM,

The Endowment Fund Board is offering its excellent LAST THINGS FIRST Program in Kirk Hall. Presentations include:

- Basic Estate Planning Considerations and Veterans Benefits... Carolyn Hughes, President of the Endowment Fund Board
- Hospice Care... Empath Health Representative
- Memorial Service Planning... Becky Robbins-Penniman, Rector of Good Shepherd.

This meeting is informational but not exhaustive. You will be given information on following up with appropriate individuals and organizations. We should be done by 1PM. All are welcome!

WHY ONE THOUSAND DAYS ARE IMPORTANT!

The first 1,000 days are a time of tremendous potential and enormous vulnerability. How well or how poorly mothers and children are nourished and cared for during this time has a profound impact on a child’s ability to grow, learn and thrive. This is because the first 1,000 days are when a child’s brain begins to grow and develop and when the foundations for their lifelong health are built.

As some members of our church family will still be in their summer homes when Becky and Gus say their farewells, a special get together has been planned for the “Winter Folks”

We will gather on the church patio from 4-5pm to thank them for all the blessings they have bestowed on our lives at Good Shepherd.
